Control your projects, and advance your career.

The Graduate Diploma of Project Management in Global Business Administration is a joint program designed by CISRO Institute of Management and offered in collaboration with Université du Québec en Outaouais (UQO). The program addresses one of the main challenges of the 21st century by integrating a global vision of business into the core knowledge of project management. The Graduate Diploma of Project Management in Global Business Administration (GBA) is a non-credit Graduate Professional Development program targeting today's leaders worldwide.

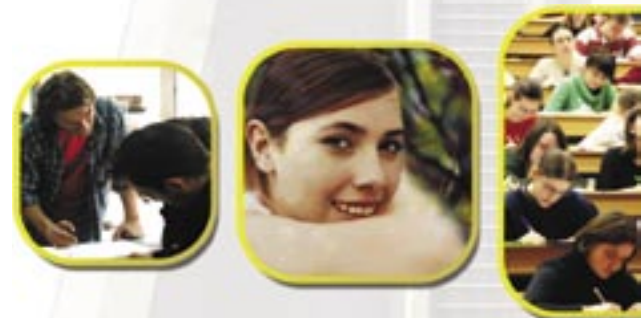

The CISRO – UQO's Graduate Diploma of Project Management in GBA is ideal for every project leader, manager or supervisor who is responsible for executing new organizational initiatives in all business disciplines be it locally, nationally or internationally. The program will help:

- Mastering the core knowledge areas of the Project management guide
- Strengthening leadership and effectiveness in managing projects
- Equipping individuals to sit for the PMP certification examination
- Advance a manager's career to a higher level of responsibilities in a changing environment.

THE PROGRAM

The CISRO-UQO's Graduate Diploma of Project Management in GBA is designed to address the learning and training needs of project managers facing new challenges and ambitious individuals willing to become project managers in a highly globalized economy.

The curriculum consists of global business management knowledge fields, project management knowledge areas focused on PMI standards, a structured experience learning in teams as well as obtaining a proficiency in MS Project. Program requirements can be completed in approximately 10 months. The total number of courses is 10 with a possibility of getting advanced standings on business management courses.

Study in an executive format.

The program is delivered in an executive format on the basis of 2 courses every 2 months for a total of 10 courses in 10 months. Each course takes place in class every second weekend. Face to face classes are held 2 times a week: Friday, 4:00 – 7:00 PM; Saturday, 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM; and online tutorials on Wednesday, 11:00 AM – 2:00 PM.

Upon completion of the Program, participants will be awarded the Graduate Diploma of Project Management in Global Business Administration from CISRO and a certificate from UQO acknowledging this success.

UQO is a PMI Registered Education Provider and its Project Management programs are nationally and internationally highly praised.

MASTERS' DEGREE / ADVANCED STANDINGS

GRADUATE DIPLOMA of PROJECT MANAGEMENT in GBA

Director's Message,

At CISRO, we are constantly challenging ourselves to innovate and to ensure that we are providing timely professional education programs designed to bridge the gap between the academic and professional worlds. To that end, we are pleased to be partnering with Université du Québec en Outaouais (UQO) in launching a truly innovative non-credit professional development program, the CISRO-UQO Graduate Diploma of Project Management in Global Business Administration.

This 10-month, full-time program, the second of its kind in our portfolio, combines both academic and professional development content to enrich the learning experience for practicing managers and executives worldwide. In our program, learners can acquire comprehensive core knowledge in project management in the context of global business administration, the appropriate focus in the contemporary global business environment.

Dedicated and exceptional faculty members known for their expertise in the areas of project management and globalization, together with our highly committed and praised University partner, make this a unique, timely program for everyone at the executive and management levels. By completing our Diploma, you will find new ways to add value to your organization while enhancing your personal opportunities for career advancement, locally or internationally.

On behalf of the CISRO Institute of Management and all of our institutional partners, I invite you to explore and consider the opportunities offered by the CISRO-UQO Graduate Diploma in Global Project Management.
